Leaning Into Justice

2022 Human and Civil Rights Awards & Student Contest

DSEA Human & Civil Rights Community Awards

Do you know someone in your community who takes particular interest in social justice issues? If so, now is your chance to let others know how valuable this person is in championing human and civil rights.

DSEA’s Human and Civil Rights Task Force awards two Delawareans each year - one DSEA member and one individual outside of the organization - for outstanding achievements in Human and Civil Rights. (Previous HCR Award winners are excluded.)

The nomination form is available at: www.dsea.org/content/dsea-human-civil-rights-awards-hcr

DSEA Human & Civil Rights “Diversity Through The Arts” Student Contest

This year’s theme is: Leaning Into Justice

Students can enter in the following categories:

Writing: Grades 3-4, 5-8, and 9-12
Art: Grades K-4, 5-8, and 9-12
Digital Media: Grades K-4, 5-8, and 9-12

No group submissions permitted. Deadline is 4:00 p.m. on March 28, 2022.

Contest entries must be submitted electronically at: www.dsea.org/content/hcr-student-contest

Presentation of Awards will take place at the Human and Civil Rights Awards Ceremony, on May 18, 2022 in the Great Hall of St. Andrew’s Church in Dover.

Contest rules and this year’s HCR student contest brochure can be found on the DSEA website (www.dsea.org/content/dsea-human-civil-rights-awards-hcr)
