

Dream Together

It all started with a dream.
A dream that would change
The way we live,
The way we treat others,
And the way we respect.
Because of Martin Luther,
We can all join together.
We now are able to
Not only hold hands,
But we can all be friends.
If we have the same mindset
A man with a dream once had,
We can continue
To love each other.
We can choose to remain in conjunction
And use our ideas for the better.
If we listen to each other
Not only by using our ears
But our minds and thoughts, too,
We can help understand
One another

And make the world a better place

Just like Martin once did.

He did his part by

Allowing us to come together.

It is our job to carry it on.

We should also have a dream,

To continue what Martin Luther

Once did for us.

And in the end,

He left us,

But his inspiration stayed.

The dream he once had

Remained with us

And always will.
